KRAZY KAT - "A BUM STEER"

Produced by

Charles B. Mintz

Distributed by

Paramount Famous Lasky Corp.

Krazy Kat and a cowboy are in a rope tossing contest in which the cowboy defeats the feline. The cowboy takes Krazy Kat's girl to the Rodeo. Krazy Kat, dejected, starts to milk a cow which is very effeminate and who starts to make love to him leaving him in a dazed condition. The cow walks away.

In the meantime, a tough bull comes over and Krazy Kat recovering, not realizing the difference, tries to continue his love affair. The bull horns him into the arena of the Rodeo where a broncho had just thrown the cowboy. Krazy Kat lands on the broncho's back and breaks him in in his own style.

While bowing to the crowds applause, the tough bull breaks into the Rodeo and chases Krazy Kat around until he corners him and they go into a wrestling match. It ends with Krazy Kat pinning the bulls shoulders to the ground. Krazy Kat is handed the prize and also wins the girl as the crowd cheers.
